

What is Conflict Questions

Conflict 1

“...Conflict can stretch from a mild disagreement to all out war, and is an inevitable element of interpersonal communication. Managing conflict is a skill that is necessary to deal with day to day life. ...” (anonymous)

Do you agree that conflict is inevitable (it’s going to happen) or do you disagree and think you can live without conflict? Explain your position and back it up with your own experiences as evidence.

Conflict 2

“... For anything to strike interest into the human mind, there must be conflict. For without such conflict life is dull, and there would not be any development of character.” (anonymous)

Do you agree that conflict is necessary to keep life interesting and help build character or do you disagree and think conflict is not necessary? Explain your position and back it up with your own experiences as evidence.
